Made on the Coast Announces 2019 Participating Artists

Half Moon Bay, CA: Made on the Coast Locals' Block proudly announces the 2019 artists participating in the Half Moon Bay Art & Pumpkin Festival, sponsored by the Half Moon Bay Beautification Committee.

Twenty San Mateo County artists have been chosen to participate in the one day pop-up of talented local art during the annual Half Moon Bay Art and Pumpkin Festival, from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. on Sunday, October 20, 2019.

For the first time, these local artists will also have the opportunity to showcase their work at the Half Moon Bay Public Library from Friday October 4th – 18th in the front lobby.

Local artists include:

Joseph Altwer: Painter
Peggy Bechtell: Photographer
Roxanne Beebe: Bottle stoppers & jigsaw puzzles
Betsy Harms & Christine Bloomquist: Jewelry
Sylvie-Marie Drescher: Locally sourced botanical gifts
Julie Engelman: Ocean inspired artwork
Julia Ginna: Dog gift baskets
Marilyn Johnson: organic, homemade jams and jellies
Kathleen Martin: Photography
Len Banks & Laura McHugh: Painters
Silvio Modena: Chimes & bells
Stuart Nafey: Photography
Ivania Portocarrero: Painter
Nancy Quickert: Ceramics
Randall Reid: Pottery
Laura & Mark Squire: Portrait photography
Carolyn Tillie: Jewelry
Raymond Wolfram: Local honey

In addition the Half Moon Bay High School Art Department will be participating and numerous artists, including the potters, will demonstrate their creative work.

The local's block can be found on Main Street between Mill and Kelly Street on Sunday, October 20th only from 9am to 5pm. We look forward to supporting our local artists and showcasing our talented community members to all who attend.
